

EDU TECH SPONSOR

DAYANANDA SAGAR UNIVERSITY

WE DEEPLY APPRECIATE YOUR PARTICIPATION & SUPPORT

FUTURISE

November 18-20, 2025

Dayananda Sagar University (DSU) is participating in the Bengaluru Tech Summit 2025 as EDUTECH Partner being held in Bangalore from 18 to 20 November 2025.

Over 600 organisations are participating in the program including from over 25 countries with a special emphasis on start-ups.

DSU is also showcasing 5 start-ups of its over 100+ start-ups covering five different domains including IT, women & Health, Electronic Manufacturing, Waste Management and Agriculture, the companies are

- ReNoteAI
- Addictronz
- Cherries Engineering and Innovations Pvt Ltd.
- Savemom
- SUIND

DSU is also present in HALL 3 stall No: 260-241

The emphasis of DSU at the Program is showcasing DSU as an end-to-end future partner for Deeptech and Future Innovation for Start-ups, MSME to MNCs and PSUs

Dayananda Sagar University – Empowering Innovation, Enabling Impact.

AI-Integration • Circular Economy Ready • Net Zero Aligned
Data-Driven Strategy • L&D & Workforce Upskilling • End-to-End R&D Support
Optimization • Validation • Evaluation • TIC • Compliance

Advanced R&D Labs | CoEs | Maker Spaces | AIC-DSU & DERBI Foundation (incubation)

Enabling 200+ companies and building India's Deep Tech future

Your Partner in Deep Tech R&D and Future Skills.

30+ DSU students are also showcasing their innovative projects and start-ups ideas.

DSU Vice Chancellor participated in a Roundtable discussion on the Bengaluru Research & Innovation Consortium (BRIC) lead by Prof Rajeev Gowda former MP and IIM Bangalore Professor, With Dr. M.C. Sudhakar the Minister for Higher Education, Smt. Uma Mahadevan, Additional Chief Secretary, Government of Karnataka, India & Mr. Krish Gopalakrishnan as chief guests and a set of Industry and academic leaders at the Bengaluru Tech Summit on 19th November 2025.

DSU Vice Chancellor participated as Speaker in a panel discussion on Academia meets Industry - Reimagining the Future of Talent at Bengaluru Tech Summit 2025 on 20th November 2025.