Department: CSE (AI & ML)

Chairperson: Dr. Jayavrinda Vrindavanam V

NSS Faculty Coordinator: Dr. Shreyas Rajendra Hole

Student Coordinator: Shiksha S K, Manyashree D, Chetan, Amitabh Thakur

The program commenced as per the scheduled date, time, and venue. The NSS CSE (AI & ML) Dept. Faculty Coordinator, Dr Shreyas Rajendra Hole welcomed the students and provided an introduction to NSS and the importance of Anti-Ragging Awareness. He highlighted the drawbacks of ragging and its serious consequences. The CSE (AI& ML) Chairperson, Dr. Jayavrinda Vrindavanam V was invited to officially grant permission to begin the activities.

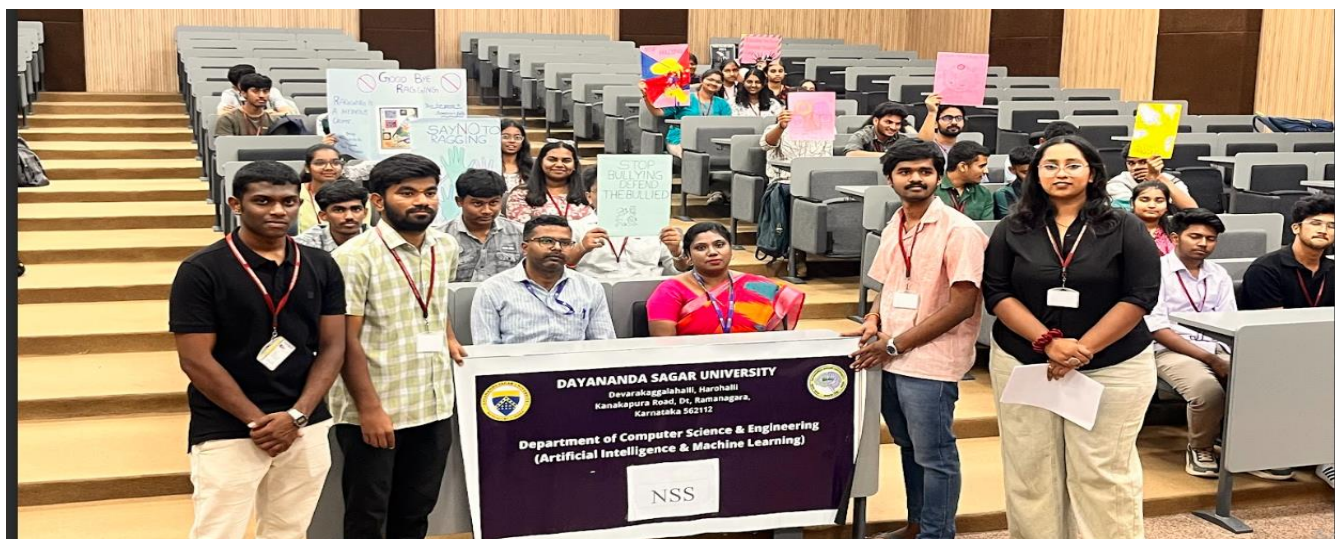

The CSE (AI & ML) students performed a skit titled "The Right Action" as part of the Anti-Ragging Awareness Activity. The skit portrayed a realistic scenario of interaction between junior and senior students, highlighting potential challenges faced by newcomers. Faculty and senior students intervened at crucial moments, demonstrating the importance of ethical behavior, mutual respect, and responsible conduct. The performance effectively conveyed the message that ragging is unacceptable and that students should foster a supportive and inclusive environment. The audience responded positively, recognizing the significance of authority intervention in preventing ragging incidents.

Following the skit, the Anti-Ragging Awareness Presentation was conducted in classrooms by a team of students. The presentation included informative PowerPoint slides and posters explaining ragging laws, university policies, and consequences for those involved in such activities. It emphasized the necessity of maintaining a ragging-free campus and educated students on their rights and responsibilities. The interactive session encouraged student participation, allowing them to ask questions and discuss real-life situations. The initiative successfully created awareness among students, reinforcing the university's commitment to ensuring a safe and respectful academic environment.

The activities concluded with all participants taking an Anti-Ragging Pledge, affirming their commitment to maintaining a ragging-free campus. Students pledged to uphold respect, integrity, and inclusivity, ensuring that no individual is subjected to harassment or discrimination. The pledge reinforced the importance of ethical conduct, mutual support, and adherence to university policies. This collective commitment symbolized a unified stand against ragging, fostering a safe, respectful, and harmonious learning environment at Dayananda Sagar University.
