

Guidelines for the Awards and criteria for the selection of awards

1. Principal of the Year-2023
2. Eminent Teacher Award- 2023
3. Young Scientist Award- 2023
4. Innovative Researcher (Faculty category 2023)
5. Innovative Researcher (student category 2023)

The Convention on Drug Discovery and Development (CDD-2023) award is created by the central executive council (CEC) members of the COPS, DSU to recognize members of pharmacy fraternity for their outstanding contribution towards pharmaceutical research & development. CDD-2023 award is a prestigious award given to a member of the pharmacy fraternity who has made distinguished / outstanding contribution towards pharmaceutical research & development and the activities. The ICDD award is given on the recommendation of the CEC.

Eligibility Criteria for Award

The nominee should be a registered member of the conference to be held on 18th and 19th October 2023, organized by COPS, DSU in association of Bengaluru Bioinnovation Center (BBC), Bengaluru, Karnataka. The nominee should have outstanding contribution towards pharmaceutical research & development.

Nomination Procedure

The central executive council (CCD) of COPS, DSU shall publish a NOTICE inviting nominations from the members of the pharmacy fraternity for different awards. The Notice inviting nominations shall also be published on the official website of CDD-2023, COPS, DSU.

Selection Procedure

The convener of the CDD-2023 shall send copies of all nominations received to all members of the CEC and external evaluation committee to evaluate the nominations. On the basis of the recommendation received from the joint committee, the convener of the CDD-2023 shall announce the names of Awardees at the meeting of the CEC.

The decision as announced by the convener of the CDD-2023 shall be final, conclusive and binding. NO correspondence will be entertained nor any clarification will be furnished to the nominator and / or nominee. The CDD-2023 awards should include the certificate and the memento.

The applicant shall be duly nominated by the principal and higher official concerned from the college or university for considering the application for the respective awards in any one of the categories.